Dear Ignacio,

I hope this finds you well!

I am pleased to inform you, that you were nominated for the LSESU Teaching Awards this year - congratulations! We are writing to share with you the comments that students submitted in support of your nomination.

Inclusive Education

	Nacho actively encouraged dialogue with all students on EC1A5 both inside and outside the classroom; Nacho created a motivating, stimulating and principled environment for learning that involved all of us; Nacho ensures his lessons are accessible for everyone.

Innovative Teaching

Anonymous	I feel that studying EC307 has been transformational for me, and I would like to thank Ignacio's teaching for contributing to this. Ignacio brings our attention to critically analysing whether identification methods are convincing in economic papers, giving us true insight into the research process. He also highlights why we should care about this research by discussing with us relevant real-life policy applications and motivations for studying a topic. He is always happy to show us how the econometrics of a paper works, and I feel that I understand economics so much better after taking this course.

Thank you for your commitment to your students.

All the best,

Leonie

Congratulations on your Outstanding Teaching Nomination!

Here are your comments:

COMMENT: Ignacio is one of the best teachers I've had at the LSE. Crucially, he understands how we think as students and transmits information to us in a digestable and interesting way. It is always a challenge teaching a brand new course (EC330, environmental economics) and working with the lecturer to finalize the syllabus as the year goes on, but Ignacio went beyond our expectations and helped reassure our doubts/worries about tackling this new course.

One of his main assets is that within such a large and dense syllabus, he knows which aspects/concepts to emphasize during classes so that we can grasp the bigger picture well. Not many teachers are capable of doing this, and hence oftentimes students are left feeling overwhelmed and intimidated by difficult econometrics and economic concepts. Not with Ignacio!

In addition what helps his case is that he is extremely approachable. His office hours are held in a casual and unpretentious manner which makes it so much easier to ask silly questions, and during classes he is calm and friendly. This is one of the only classes I've ever had at LSE where, consistently, you will find a variety of students engage and talk during the class (most of the time in other courses the class is silent or it is only one or two students that contribute). This is largely attributed to how Ignacio sets the tone and environment for this course.

Regarding innovation and technology, his class slides are succinct and almost a perfect resource for our revision, once again demonstrating how he tailors the material aptly for our understanding and success in this new course. He often incorporates unique and real world anecdotes to "set the scene", including pictures from his work in Ghana on plastic waste and development. This component makes the classes exciting and more engaging, linking the theory we are learning about to a tangible and contemporary project that is developing as we speak.

He deserves this award!

COMMENT: Ignacio has been the WT course teacher for EC330 (Environmental Economics). This is a brand new course and he has provided us with the most excellent support. He takes the time to prepare our class slides and plans our class with consideration. He also holds regular office hours which have been incredibly helpful and have really added value to the course. Ignacio also goes above and beyond and ensures that we understand all the concepts in this challenging course! I have really enjoyed learning from such a smart, understanding and amazing teacher!!

MESSAGE: Thank you so much for all your hard work during this course, it's been such a pleasure learning from you! You are an amazing teacher and I will always cherish our EC330 classes!

1.4) Please comment on aspects of this teacher's teaching you think were particularly good.

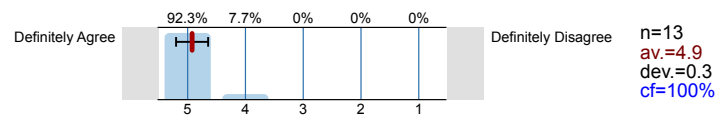

- He made the class very enjoyable and effectively delivered the course material. Some papers were difficult to understand but after his explanation, many things made sense as he explained them very well. His passion for this course made me more interested in it too.
- Ignacio communicated the ideas of the course in an intelligible manner and highlighted the most important parts of each week.
- Ignacio is a wonderful teacher. He is particularly good at breaking down difficult concepts into understandable pieces. Further, he is a very positive person and this has a positive effect on the vibe of his classes. He adds value by going into a lot of detail and adding novel content, such as in the class on water quality where he told us about his research in Paris. I appreciate that Ignacio makes the extra effort with his teaching, which is not always the case for Phd teachers in the department.
- Ignacio is one of the best teachers I've ever had after 3 years at the LSE. He is approachable and untimidating which helps a lot when I have doubts or question. He also knows exactly how to synthesize the right information thats relevant for our revision. I hope he gets an award for his class teaching!
- Ignacio is the best. He's very articulate and he is young enough to seem relatable (as a student). He explains each question with clear intuition and makes sure that we all understand. He smiles, has a good sense of humour and doesn't take it all too seriously. Exactly what I need from a class teacher after a rather serious lecture.
- Ignacio was an amazing teacher - he was very good in encouraging students to engage in classes and always provided good feedback for our answers. He was also good in setting up group exercises and motivating us to go through the problem sets together. I also liked that he did everything to help us prepare for the exam and he cared about our concerns regarding some types of exercises. He was also flexible to shift the emphasis of a class when there was a concept which needed more time to be explained.
- Ignacio was well prepared for class and explains concepts well, and since he worked on some papers he is able to provide personal insights which is very valuable

- talks about exam technique
- Very helpful in explaining empirical ideas and strategies

1.5) Please comment on aspects of this teacher's teaching you think could be improved.

- He sometimes gives time for group discussions where instructions are sometimes a bit unclear but at least it gives some pressure to come to classes prepared and makes the class a bit closer.
- I have no complaints about his teaching or marking.
- I still think you need to be more creative in how you make the class more interactive or engaging. Most of us enter the class not knowing each other. Some ice breaker activity or anything would be ideal before just rushing into the first paper and expecting us to be chatty. We are LSE students after all.
- It was unclear when and how we would receive feedback for our problem sets. I think the manner of grading could be communicated easily at the beginning of the course.
- It would have been nice if the feedback for the problem sets came back a bit earlier as even in week 11, we do not have any.
- n/a, but maybe we can have longer classes so we can go more in depth
- sometimes doesnt cover everything
- The classes focus a lot on the empirical equations and notation, whereas I don't feel this is necessary for the exam because we won't be asked to copy out the expressions. I would prefer an emphasis on the INTUITION of the papers :)

- he is so much better than robin. pls make him the lecturer next year instead
- He is very enthusiastic in teaching and I learned a lot from him. He also gave very detailed explanations of technical details in paper which was very helpful.
- Ignacio's classes helped me immensely in understanding the material in WT. He took time to ensure we understood all key details of papers, and he had great energy and enthusiasm in his teaching. Honestly a pleasure to be in class.

1.4) Please comment on aspects of this teacher's teaching you think were particularly good.

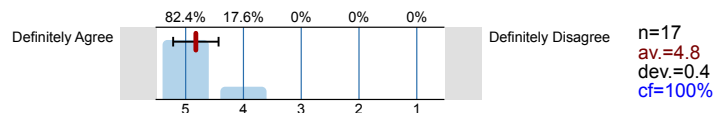

- Enjoys teaching.
Able to convey ideas with sufficient levels of detail.
Excellent understanding of the material.
Helps build intuition.
- Explains the paper and concepts very clearly and in a simple manner
- He explained the materials in the seminar in a clear way
- He is organized in the way he order the content of the lectures.
- He's very well informed and breaks down the lesson for better understanding.
- I find Ignacio's way of explaining particularly clear.
I really appreciate that classes quickly review the material covered during the previous lecture before tackling the problem set.
Overall, a great teacher!
- Ignacio is always willing to help student and motivated about the topics.
- Ignacio is really great at explaining complicated readings and reviewing the more complex course topics, and I always leave the seminars with a better understanding of the course concepts
- Really good at recapping and condensing everything that was taught in the lectures.

- The seminars with Ignacio help make the concepts very clear. He is also very approachable for office hours and to answer any questions.
- The teacher is very passionate when teaching and he is also very helpful on general advice
- Very well prepared for seminars. Brings energy to the material. Engages with students during the whole class.

1.5) Please comment on aspects of this teacher's teaching you think could be improved.

- A lot of material to cover in a short time. The seminars are often super rushed, this is mostly to do with the fact that seminars are just too short rather than a fault of Ignacio's.
- Could be slowed down in seminars but I also understand that just has to do with the fact that we only have one hour for seminar, which isn't a lot of time.
- Everything is great.
- I believe it would be beneficial for classes to last for more than one hour.
- It would be great to have the class material after the seminar
- maybe the way he explains few concepts. He something needs to repite or say it in another way. Usually at the second time I just get it.
- More interactive seminar with fellow classmates would be helpful.

1.4) Please comment on aspects of this teacher's teaching you think were particularly good.

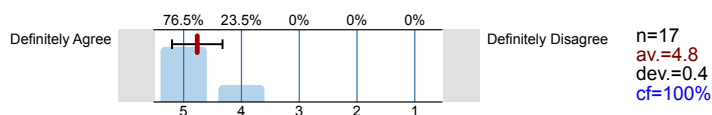

- Clear ideas! He gave us additional case study as an example for our essay.
- he provides a great explanation of the problem set in the class. the office hour time is also clear.
- Ignacio is a very enthusiastic and dedicated TA. It is evident that he is passionate about the subject, which is contagious. Ignacio always took the time to explain everything in a clear and creative manner, and created an enabling environment in which everyone could speak up and would not be shy to ask questions.
- Ignacio always made concepts very clear, and spent adequate time addressing questions. He made the lectures very interactive.
- Ignacio has always been very clear in the seminars and very helpful with both questions related to the course and non
- Ignacio has been very patient and helpful in teaching the concepts and explaining them with a lot of clarity. The office hours are also helpful.
- Ignacio is a well-trained development economist who is eager to take a deep dive into each aspect of the curriculum.
- Ignacio is very detail in explaining. Making it easier to incorporate the lecture in practical.
- Really good at keeping topics and discussions in seminar easy to follow and understand especially where we are answering exam forms of questions.
- Simplifies concepts
Provides detailed explanation

- The classes are well organized.
- Very clear teaching. Understood the econ models better after going to his seminars. Very enthusiastic and brought such a good energy to the course. Good clear slides.
- Very good! It is noticed that he did not only study for a PhD before, which adds a lot of value, going beyond just the theoretical things that I had in another course, which were a problem from the TAs.

1.5) Please comment on aspects of this teacher's teaching you think could be improved.

- Could improve on being able to prioritize content and teaching material better. There's usually a lot of content that are left uncovered and rushed through during seminar because it's a lot more than what can fit in a one hour seminar.
- I expect Ignacio to upload the slide from seminar for review.
- It would be great for the students to have the slides after the class more timely
- NA
- Nothing. One of my best TA!
- The seminars were good but sometimes desynchronised with the lectures. Maybe updating the content for specific topics will also be an improvement.

- Engaging and makes classes informative
- Engaging, attentive and approachable
- Explained complex metrics concepts clearly
- Good slides
- Good structure of class
- He explained things very clearly and in a great detail. His class is engaging and helpful.
- He makes the econometrics so clear - he is fantastic and so kind.
- He takes a lot of time to ensure that we understand the theories and maths/data behind the papers. I think that he is also really positive in class and encourages us all to participate.
- Ignacio is very enthusiastic and passionate about the content that he teaches. This enthusiasm makes difficult content much easier to grasp as he is always willing to be patient and answer any questions that arise. He is also very good at explaining concepts effectively.
- So clear and helpful. A very good teacher.
- The slides provided in the classes and his overall method of teaching and communicating information
- The teacher was good at explaining concepts that seemed difficult in the papers - I always left the classes feeling my understanding of the papers had strengthened
- Very good intuition and sharp explanation. Class are engaging by having group discussions.
